March 2022 - Mid-Month Reminders and News

Third Thursday – St. Patrick’s Day

Come celebrate St. Patrick’s Day at Beaux on March 17th from 5:30pm to 7:30pm. There is no entry fee - half price drink specials and vaccination restrictions apply. Look forward to seeing all of you!

Bars of Interest – Last Rites Bar

Wednesday, March 23 from 6:00pm – 7:30pm. Enjoy a unique experience at this hidden gem, Last Rites Bar, located at 718 14th St, off Market and Church in San Francisco. The décor is somewhere between Jurassic Park and Tropical Paradise with waterfalls, plants, and the remnants of an airplane. Design also features two gargantuan skulls. The bartenders have several specialty cocktails only available here. The Bar opens at 6pm, no early birds. Be prepared to show proof of vaccination.

Guided Tour of Chinatown

Saturday, April 16 at 10:30am. You have lived in San Francisco for how many years and you likely have been to Grant Avenue several times. But have you really seen Chinatown? Look again to see what you’ve missed! Chinatown is a whole thriving community, apart from the tourist attractions. Temples, association buildings, the alleys you always walked by - all are part of the history and culture of Chinatown, even the fortune cookie factory and the site for the acclaimed Empress by Boon.

Join MAX for an illuminating guided tour of the oldest Chinese community in North America. Our tour will be conducted by Bob Yeargin, an experienced guide who has given this tour for more than 20 years. We will meet at Portsmouth Square by the flagpole on the upper level near the elevators to the garage (off Washington St). Portsmouth Square is on Kearny Street between Clay and Washington Streets. The tour will last about two hours, and the route is relatively easy, traversing mostly on level
